Faery Wing Skirts & Tunics are back!

...this time we redesigned it as a great dual use “one size fits all” style...the adjustable gathered top bit is either a skirt waistband that fits up to a 45” waist size, or can be worn as a capelet or tunic top with a sizing that fits everyone! We call it the “Escape” – because you can escape the mundane in one minute by wearing it as a cape, tunic or a skirt.... a multi use, unisex fantasy for your small closet!

It's a cape- it's a skirt - it's an instant getaway!

Think of the "ESCAPE" as Wearable Wings - to give you an instant costume & warm cover-up!!! An amazingly flattering asymmetrical hem on this MULTI-USE garment is fun and comfortable, designed with simple adjustable drawstring closure to fit just about anyone.

Fits up to a 45" waist as a skirt. Head-turning looks & very classy when worn as a tunic or short cape
